

Kalina Micheva-Peycheva

Phd, Ass. Prof. Department of Ethnolinguistics, Institute of Bulgarian Language, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. She has been working in the Section for Ethnolinguistics since 2006, she has PhD degree since 2011 and she is an associate professor since 2019.

Her research interests are in the field of historical linguoculturology, ethnolinguistics, and etc. She is the author of monographs, including: Ethno-cultural binary in medieval Bulgarian literature. Sofia, DioMira, 2017; Sacral purity and profane impurity. Saarbrücken, Lambert Academic Publishing, 2016; The clash of purity and impurity in the Bulgarian culture and language. Sofia, Valentin Trayanov Publishing House, 2013. She is also an author of over 60 articles and studies in Bulgarian, Russian, Slovak, Polish and Greek thematic collections and magazines.

K. Micheva-Peycheva has participated in more than 40 national and international conferences. Her scientific publications have over 100 citations in authoritative sources. She has had lectures at universities and has headed student internships of more than 50 students. K. Micheva-Peycheva is the winner of the prestigious Award of the Institute of Bulgarian Language for Young Scientist for 2012.

Dofinansowano z programu
„Doskonała nauka” (ID 462229)
Ministra Edukacji i Nauki

Ministerstwo
Edukacji i Nauki

