

Nadezhda Nikolova

Assist. Prof., PhD is a linguist in the „Ethnolinguistics“ Section at the Institute of for Bulgarian Language „Prof. L. Andreychin“, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Her research interests are in the field of ethnolinguistics, linguoculturology, terminology and terminography, history of literary language, language culture, pragmatics, and communication.

She has so far participated in national and international projects such as: Dictionary of the Bulgarian Language, Language – Ethnicity – Culture. The Plant World in Bulgarian Folklore (An Ethnolinguistic Research), Electronic Archive of the Ethnolinguistics Section, part I: Spiritual Culture, Ethnolinguistic Dictionary of Bulgarian Folk Medicine, Ethnoculture and National Communicative Style, on the following topic: „The Associative World of the Bulgarian“, a study with Bulgarian participation in the EUROJOS project and others.

She is the author of monographs, studies, articles, such as: Professor Marin Drinov and the Bulgarian socio-political vocabulary, Sofia, AI „Prof. Marin Drinov“, BAS (2009), Atanasova, A., D. Blagoeva, N. Nikolova and others, Dictionary of the Bulgarian Language. Sofia, „Prof. M. Drinov“ Publishing House of BAS, Vol. 15 (2015), The Plant World in the Bulgarian Song Folklore, Sofia (2018), Linguistic Aspects of the Legal Terminology of the European Union (2018) and others.

Dofinansowano z programu
„Doskonała nauka“ (ID 462229)
Ministra Edukacji i Nauki

Ministerstwo
Edukacji i Nauki

